

Board Charter

The Board is responsible for the good management of the Company and its principal aim shall be to enhance the Company's long-term value for the benefit of shareholders.

Governance Principles

Strategy

The Board shall agree a business strategy for the Company that shall be reviewed and refreshed as necessary with a view to ensuring that shareholder value is protected and enhanced.

Performance

The Board shall monitor on a regular basis the Company's performance against an agreed strategy and business plan. In addition, it shall agree key objectives for the Chief Executive on an annual basis and will monitor performance against these.

The Board shall evaluate critically on a regular basis its own performance, that of its committees and individual Directors.

Standards and Values

The Board shall set global principles, values and standards and agree policies and processes to guide the affairs of the Company in pursuing its strategic intention to become a leader in standards of responsible business conduct among global companies.

Board members shall be exemplars of the Company's values, principles, and standards.

Oversight

The operational management of the Company within an agreed strategy and business plan shall be delegated to the Chief Executive but the Board shall exercise oversight over the discharge of this delegation. Such oversight shall be based on:

- Risk Management and Internal Control

The Board shall determine the nature and extent of the principal risks it is willing to take in achieving its strategic objectives.

The Board shall ensure that sound risk management and internal control systems are in place at all times. It shall monitor and review such systems on a regular basis, covering all material controls, including financial, operational and compliance controls.

- Information

The Board shall ensure that it receives accurate and timely information on the performance of the Company and shall agree with the Chief Executive the nature and scope of the information to be provided. The Chief Executive shall be obliged to bring to the Board's attention all matters that materially affect, or are capable of materially affecting, the performance of the Company and the achievement of its strategy.

- Delegated Authorities

The Board shall approve the delegation of certain responsibilities and authorities but shall maintain a schedule of matters to be reserved specifically for its decision (see Appendix A).

People

The Board shall be responsible for ensuring that the Company is managed by individuals with the necessary skills, experience and knowledge to deliver the Company's agreed business strategy and high standards of responsible business conduct. The senior management resources and succession plans shall be reviewed by the Board on a regular basis.

The Board recognises that collectively it is responsible for managing effectively the succession of appointments to the Board to ensure that it has access to the right skills, experience, independence and knowledge necessary for it to discharge its duties and promote the Company's success. The Board shall aim to ensure that at least half of its membership, excluding the Chairman, comprises non-executive directors determined by the Board to be independent.

The Role of the Chairman

The Chairman is responsible for creating the conditions for the effective working of the Board and is specifically responsible for the following:

- Chairing Board meetings and setting the agenda for such meetings and ensuring that adequate time is available for discussion of all agenda items, in particular strategic issues.
- Promoting a culture of openness and debate amongst Directors and senior management by facilitating the effective contribution of non-executive directors in particular and ensuring constructive relations between executive and non-executive Directors.
- Promoting the highest standards of corporate governance, including compliance with the UK Corporate Governance Code wherever possible.
- Promoting the requirement that all Board members are exemplars of the Company's values, principles and standards.
- Through the Nominations Committee, ensuring that the Board comprises individuals with an appropriate mixture of skills, experience and knowledge.
- Ensuring that the Company maintains effective communication with shareholders and that their views and any concerns are understood by the Board.
- Working with the Chief Executive to ensure that the Board receives accurate and timely information on the performance of the Company.
- Representing the Company at the highest level and in conjunction with the Chief Executive developing strategic relationships with major customers and political leaders worldwide.
- Leading the evaluation of the performance of the Board, its committees and individual Directors
- Establishing an effective working relationship with the Chief Executive, providing support and advice whilst respecting executive responsibility.
- Ensuring that a well constructed induction programme is provided for new Directors, that all Directors have the opportunity to develop their understanding of the Company and that they are kept informed of matters affecting the Company.

The Role of the Chief Executive

The Chief Executive is responsible for the leadership and the operational and performance management of the Company within the strategy and business plan agreed by the Board.

The Chief Executive is specifically responsible for the following in respect of his/her relationship with the Board:

- Developing a business strategy for the Company to be approved by the Board on an annual basis.
- Producing business plans for the Company to be approved by the Board on an annual basis.
- Overseeing the management of the executive resource and succession planning processes and presenting annually the output from these to the Board and Nominations Committee.
- Ensuring that effective business and financial controls and risk management processes are in place across the Company and that all relevant laws and regulations are complied with.
- Making recommendations to the Board on the appropriate delegation of authority within the group.
- Keeping the Board informed regularly as to the performance of the Company and bringing promptly to the Board's attention all matters that materially affect, or are capable of materially affecting, the performance of the Company and the achievement of its strategy.
- Developing for the Board's approval appropriate values and standards to guide all activities undertaken by the Company.
- Providing clear and visible leadership in responsible business conduct.
- Promoting the requirement that all Senior Leaders are exemplars of the Company's values, principles, and standards.
- Owning the Company's commitment to all aspects of Corporate Responsibility.
- Owning, and enacting when required, the Company's Crisis management procedures and supporting manual, including liaison with the Board.

Role of the Senior Independent Director

The Senior Independent Director shall be responsible for the following:

- Being available to shareholders if they have concerns which contact through the normal channels of Chairman, Chief Executive or other executive Directors has failed to resolve or for which such contact is inappropriate.
- Provide a sounding board for the Chairman and to serve as an intermediary for the other Directors when necessary.
- Chairing the Nominations Committee when it is considering the Chairman's succession.
- Providing feedback on the Chairman's performance as derived from the evaluation exercise undertaken by the Board.

Role of the Company Secretary

The Company Secretary is specifically responsible for the following:

- Under the direction of the Chairman, ensuring good information flows within the Board and its committees and between senior management and non-executive directors, as well as facilitating induction activities for directors and assisting with their development as required.
- Advising the Board through the Chairman on all governance matters.

Committees of the Board

The Board has created the following standing Committees:

- Audit Committee
- Corporate Responsibility Committee
- Nominations Committee
- Remuneration Committee
- Non-Executive Directors' Fees Committee
- Banking Committee
- Inside Information Committee

Terms of reference for the above committees are shown in the attached Appendix B.

The composition and quorum of the Banking Committee is either;

- (A) any two Directors of the Company, if the principal amount of the matter under consideration does not exceed the limits set out in sub-paragraph (B) below; or
- (B) any four Directors of the Company, of whom two must be Non-Executive Directors, if the principal amount of the matter under consideration exceeds £100 million in the case of matters falling within paragraph 9(ii) of the Banking Committee's Terms of Reference; or £250 million in the case of matters falling within paragraphs 3, 4 or 9(i) of the Banking Committee's Terms of Reference; or £500 million in the case of matters falling within paragraphs 6, 7, 8 and 10 of the Banking Committee's Terms of Reference.

Except for those matters falling within sub-paragraph (B) above, the Banking Committee may from time to time sub-delegate its authority to further sub-committees as it deems appropriate in accordance with Article 101 of the Company's Articles of Association.

Terms of Reference

The Board has delegated to the Banking Committee responsibility on behalf of the Board for approving and authorising:

1. The opening, closing, variation, supervision, control and administration of Company bank accounts in the United Kingdom and overseas.
2. Any changes to the financial structure of subsidiary companies (other than wholly owned subsidiaries), associate companies, joint ventures and partnerships including, inter alia, any increase in equity or loan capital.
3. The execution and delivery of credit facilities by the Company with banks and financial institutions.
4. The execution and delivery of any agreements or other documents that may be required for the purpose of or in connection with any form of fund raising or credit support by the Company.
5. The execution and delivery of any finance lease agreement to be entered into by the Company.
6. The execution and delivery of any agreements or other documents in the name of the Company that may be required in connection with any other credit, banking or treasury facility including, but not limited to, foreign exchange transactions, interest rate and currency swaps, forward rate agreements, interest rate and currency options and futures and repurchase agreements.

7. The purchase or sale of exchange traded financial instruments from or to the appropriate clearing body established by a recognised exchange.
8. The execution and delivery of any counter indemnities required from the Company in connection with the issue of bonds, guarantees or letters of credit by any bank, surety group or financial institution on behalf of the Company.
9. The execution and delivery of any guarantee or indemnity (whether in respect of any financial obligation or otherwise) required to be given by the Company in respect of or in connection with any of (i) the Company's wholly owned subsidiary companies; or (ii) any other company or entity in which the Company has a shareholding or interest.
10. The execution and delivery of any document, agreement or instrument constituting or evidencing or incidental to, any arrangement for the giving of guarantees, the accepting of recourse or the taking or assuming of any financial or other exposure in connection with the financing, whether directly or indirectly, of sales, whether such sales be directly by the Company or by any business unit or by any subsidiary of the Company or any customer of the Company and whether such financial or other exposure is given, accepted, taken or assumed at the same time as such sale or at any time prior or subsequent thereto.
11. The execution and delivery of, any agreement, document or instrument necessary, appropriate or desirable for or in connection with any matters incidental to any of the above.
